Etiquette Corner

Bowing (part 3):

The meaning of the hands: When kneeling we place our hands in front, fingers outstretched, and forming a triangle. This represents "Jung Shin" or straight mind. All of your focus and attention is towards your training and achieving your goals. Standing, we grab our belt with the index or "Ki" fingers out and touching. This represents the use of "Ki" or internal energy we must develop through Kuk Sool training. Everything we do has meaning and purpose.
