Etiquette Corner

Jung Shin (part 1):

Jung Shin is the accumulation of basic etiquette and manners from a good teacher. Basic Jung Shin etiquette includes bowing to the national flag and the school, and getting instructors with "sir/ma'am" or their proper title. Calling someone sir is not meant to humble a student. Instead, it helps to remove basic fears about outwardly and verbally showing respect to a senior classmate. When that fear is removed many other fears are also eliminated giving more self-confidence.
