Etiquette Corner

Having vs Being

Having a Black Belt and being a Black Belt are very different. Black Belt is not merely a rank, it is a mindset. It is the constant pursuit to improve yourself and in turn the people around you. In all aspects of life, Black Belts are putting forth their best efforts, demonstrating exceptional etiquette, and most importantly controlling their emotions. Facing challenges, frustration and even anger, Black Belts stay calm and find the best ways to peacefully overcome life's difficulties.
