Etiquette Corner

Responsibility of rank

Leading by example is one of the most important responsibilities of your rank. The higher your level, the more people will be below you and therefore look up to you. Guide others with kindness and enthusiasm and the "Do as I do" mentality. As your rank increases, your training and personal standards should do the same. "Pulling Rank" should seldom be done. A true martial artist is listened to out of respect for their skill, integrity, and kindness.
