Character: A story from Master Aue

I have had the great honor of training with the Harmon Masters for 25 years. In that time I have heard and seen many remarkable things that have made me who I am today. One such conversation I will never forget is when Master Harmon was talking about how he judges someone's character. "Who would stay by my side on the battlefield regardless of what we face and who would run, that is how I judge someone's character."
